Amy,

I'll contribute $200. I was going to send you $100 (as your Christmas present) anyway. Tom is leaving for South Haven on Christmas Eve, so a bedroom will be available. Here are his latest plans:

Little schedule change: looks like we're driving up to S. Haven Sat, then go to your place sometime Mon, probably drive back to S. Haven late Xmas eve, have Xmas with Mom and Steve in the morning, then go to your folks', then back to where Mom's family is getting together, then drive home Thurs. We originally were going to Kelli's Mom's Sat before but turns out they're getting together Sat after.

I realize that I'm being more generous with Tom, but I figure he needs it.
