Tom and Kelli,

I got the book you sent. Thanks. I had been wanting to read it. The canyon he got caught in is not far from Paria Canyon, which me and a buddy hiked a ways into a couple years ago. We didn't get very deep into it - just far enough to see some beautiful canyon walls. Did you ever see my pictures? Did I ever send pictures of Maui?

I've got plenty to read now. Amy sent me "America (the Book)" from The Daily Show people and Richard Clarke's "Against All Enemies".

I don't think "Touching the Void" has come to Lansing. Is it a mountain climbing movie?
