

September 11, 2007

Rebecca [Ross, of the House Fiscal Agency],

I heard on local TV news that an increase in the personal income tax rate of .5% would increase revenues by $1.5 billion. Is that correct? If not, how much revenue is raised by each additional .1% in the income tax rate? And how do you calculate that amount?

Steve Harry
323-3897